LONDON, March 22.—The first draft of a proposed declaration by the European powers against further aggression by Nazi Germany was transmitted by Great Britain to France, Soviet Russia and Poland today coincident with the return of Memel to the third Reich.

Formal replies were not forthcoming immediately and it was impossible to determine the contents of the declaration or to speculate on the probabilities of its success.

As the cabinet of Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain met to review the European situation, a spokesman was asked whether the allied powers were duty bound in any way to prevent Nazi absorption of Memel.

Allies Not Guarantors
The spokesman replied that signatories of the Memel agreement of 1924, under which the territory was placed under Lithuanian sovereignty, were not guarantors of Memel's independence.

The cabinet meeting was attended by ministers in full levee dress. It was called early in the morning to enable the ministers to attend a state reception at the Guildhall for President and Mme. Albert Lebrun of France.

After the meeting, the ministers went directly to the Guildhall. Chamberlain was cheered by a large crowd in Downing street.

May Force Aliens To Register And Pay Tax

HARRISBURG, March 22.—A drastic bill which would force all aliens in Pennsylvania to register and pay an annual tax of $5 today appeared slated for passage in the state senate.

Sen. James A. Galtz, Allegheny Republican, who sponsored the bill, said a check of senators convinced him that unless there are unexpected switches the bill would be passed and forwarded to the house for action there.

Would Force Registration
Upon passage of the act all aliens in Pennsylvania, beginning this December and effective every year thereafter, would be forced to register with the Department of Labor and Industry, pay a registration fee of $5 and receive an alien identification card which must be carried with them at all times and displayed to police upon request.

The bill bars the employment by the state or private industry of any unregistered alien. The act applies to all aliens over 18 years old who have not declared their intention of becoming citizens.

Failure to register is punishable by a $100 fine and 60 days in prison and persons and corporations employing unregistered aliens would suffer a like penalty.

Committee Of House Speeds Arms Program

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Carrying $153,239,924 to speed the United States' rearmament program, the $185,672,028 deficiency appropriation bill was formally approved by the House Appropriations committee today.

The total represented a reduction of $27,962,993 below budget estimates. The bill was immediately sent to the floor of the house for debate.

National defense appropriations included:
For the army: For purchase of critical items of war, including automatic rifles, anti-aircraft guns, gas masks and ammunition, and to strengthen seacoast defenses, $116,539,287.

For the navy: Additional funds to continue the construction of 23 fighting ships and 14 auxiliary vessels, $36,700,637.

In taking this action, the committee made two surprise moves, however. It declined to approve a $7,300,000 request for the Civil Aeronautics Authority to train 20,000 civilian air pilots annually, on the ground that special legislation must be passed to authorize it.

At the same time, the committee "suggested" that it would be more economical and better if the training were placed in the hands of the army instead of the C.A.A.

The committee also refused to approve a request for establishment of a $10,000,000 aeronautical research station at Sunnyvale, Calif., sought by the National Advisory committee for aeronautics on the plea that this country has lost its dominant position in military aviation to Germany, and must take drastic steps to recoup. It did approve, however, a $2,140,000 N.A.C.A. request to expand existing research facilities at Langley field, Va.

The Wheeler amendment would compel congressional ratification of any reorganization proposal by President Roosevelt.

Senator Green (D) of Rhode Island was summoned from a Florida vacation and arrived early today, ready to cast his vote to delete the Wheeler provision.

The Wheeler amendment was put into the government reorganization bill yesterday by a 45 to 44 vote in which a coalition of Democrats and Republicans formed against the administration.

On the vote yesterday Green was paired with Senator Nye (R) North Dakota, who was also out of the city, and it was doubtful whether Nye would return for the expected reconsideration vote today. If not, and Senate ranks remain as they are, there was a possibility administration ranks might yet succeed in throwing out the Wheeler amendment.

BERLIN, March 22.—Once again a conqueror who triumphs without firing a shot, Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler left Berlin this afternoon for a state visit to Memel, which a few hours earlier came back to Germany after sixteen years of Lithuanian rule.

The fuhrer entrained for Swinemunde, the German naval base on the Baltic. There he will board the new battleship Deutschland, which will steam into the harbor of Memel at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

His arrival will signalize Hitler's first "naval conquest." The return of Memel gave him his first opportunity to stage a triumphant entry into a newly-acquired territory as commander-in-chief of the German navy, a post he holds automatically as supreme military commander of the Reich.

The Wheeler amendment would compel congressional ratification of any reorganization proposal by President Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—A flat two per cent increase in the income tax on all corporations and abandonment of the capital stock and excess profits levies is favored by the treasury.

Departmental revenue experts estimate today that the two per cent corporation income tax boost will supply the $140,000,000 that would be lost through dropping the stock and excess profits levies.

While the treasury's tax proposals are not in final form, the tax experts have virtually agreed on the following income tax rates:

Corporations with net income of $25,000 or less, 14 per cent on first $5,000 of special class net income; 16 per cent on next $15,000 of special class net income, and over $20,000 of special class net income, 18 per cent.

Corporations with net income of more than $25,000, 21 per cent.

Memel Is Handed Back To Germany By Lithuanians

MARTIAL LAW IN COUNTRY ORDERED

(BULLETIN)

KAUNAS, Lithuania, March 22.—Lithuania today handed Memel and its 160,000 inhabitants back to Germany and immediately girded itself for eventualities yet to come.

Martial law was proclaimed throughout the country in an official decree which stated that the nation is "passing through a very serious period."

Whether Lithuania feared a Nazi invasion of its own territory or possible loss of its own hard-won independence was problematical, but the government made no secret of the fact that a crisis has arisen.

Delegation Goes To Berlin
At 2 p. m., a Lithuanian delegation headed by Foreign Minister Juozas Urbys left Kaunas by air for Berlin.

The proclamation announcing martial law exhorted the populace to "calm and order."

Minister of finance Julius Indrišius issued a decree suspending bank payments from current accounts.

Martial law had been in effect in Kaunas itself since December 13, 1938. It was imposed at that time because of anti-government disturbances but there was no need for its extension throughout the country until today.

Urbys was accompanied to Berlin by two legal experts of the foreign ministry. A government spokesman emphasized that their negotiations will deal only with questions arising from the transfer of Memel.

No Resistance
Greater Germany successfully acquired another section of Europe today as Lithuania handed over the long-disputed Memel territory without resistance.

Emergency Taxes Will Be Continued

Expected To Furnish $163,- 000,000 In Revenue For
1939-41 Biennium

HARRISBURG, March 22.—The House ways and means committee today was to report back the series of eight bills to re-enact the emergency tax program intended to furnish $163,000,000 in revenue for the 1939-41 biennium.

The bills were reported out of committee on Monday night, given first reading and sent back for a hearing attended by spokesmen for business and industry.

It was explained to the business representatives, read the statement of Rep. Edwin Winner, Montgomery Republican, "that notwithstanding the pruning of $108,000,000 from state expenses, it has been found impossible to reduce taxes at this time due to the very heavy demands for relief and to deficiencies left by the Earle administration."

Warning Issued Against Alliance With Russia To Halt Hitler

ROME, March 22.—Standing squarely in support of the Rome-Berlin axis, Fascist Italy today gave qualified approval to Germany's conquest of Czechoslovakia and warned Europe's democracies against any sort of alliance with Soviet Russia. Italy's attitude toward the swift-moving events in Central Europe was placed before the world at the end of a meeting of the grand council under the chairmanship of Premier Mussolini.

Forerunner of War
A communique warned the democracies that a united front with Soviet Russia to halt Chancellor Hitler's expansionist aims would be the forerunner of war, not peace. The communique also announced that Italy's supreme governing body had reaffirmed its "adhesion to the Rome-Berlin axis."

Observers regarded the council meeting as a fresh start of Italian international activity aimed at satisfying Mussolini's aspirations in the Mediterranean and pressing Italy's territorial claims upon France.

to German demands for a quick settlement in order to prevent "clashes" agreed to return Memel to the Reich and informed the Lithuanian parliament of its action. Lithuania's surrender of the territory, which has been a European trouble-spot ever since it was taken from Germany under the treaty of Versailles and given to Lithuania as an outlet to the sea, was announced by the government.

Shortly after the announcement was made, a Lithuanian delegation headed by Foreign Minister Jozas Urbys left Kaunas by air for Berlin.

A special "law for defense of the state" was proclaimed throughout Lithuania.

Meanwhile, a Lithuanian delegation, which probably will be headed by former Foreign Minister Stasys Lazoras, is traveling to Berlin today to settle questions resulting from the change of jurisdiction.

In Memel the Lithuanian government turned over executive power, the postal and telegraph headquarters, the radio station and control of Memel harbor to a German director, headed by the Nazi leader Willy Verwilt.

Lithuanian volunteers in Memel were being disarmed and the director issued a proclamation commanding that order be preserved and that the inhabitants remain calm.

While there still remained numerous juridical formalities, reports from Memel said authorities there "officially" considered that the territory had passed into German hands at 8 a. m.

In Memel, contrasting scenes of joy and panic-stricken grief were enacted. Nazi storm troopers marched through the streets to be kissed by jubilant German girls.

Swastika flew from windows and, amid the German population, gaiety abounded.

But Lithuanians and Jews, fearful of the future, weeping for the homes they were leaving, left the city in a grief-stricken exodus on the heels of evacuating Lithuanian troops, who preceded to Kretzinga, a short distance north of Memel on the shores of the Baltic.

German troops in Memel took over Memel's postal and telegraph facilities and the governor's offices. A German military parade was scheduled for 8 p. m. at which time Ernst Neumann, Memel Nazi leader, will take a salute.

Lithuanian and Jewish civilians poured from the city in a seemingly endless stream—some in luggage laden automobiles, bound for new places of refuge in Lithuania.

DRAFT OF PLAN TO 'STOP HITLER' BEING STUDIED

Bonnet regarding plans for a "stop Hitler" bloc and the latest information from Memel as well as the present status of negotiations for a common front of the European democracies were understood to have been the chief subjects under discussion.

Memel Incident Insignificant
British authorities at present view the German acquisition of Memel in a different light than the Reich's action in taking over Czechoslovakia. Official circles said the Memel episode is not at present regarded as cause for any drastic action.

According to some diplomatic circles, it was never intended to have any united front anti-German declaration include the questions of Memel and Danzig because of the fact that these regions are predominantly German in population.

Meanwhile, consultations regarding the Democratic united front continued. Bonnet is scheduled to have further talks with Lord Halifax this afternoon, and later with Chamberlain.

It was stated that Poland is still hesitating regarding joining the "front," and this is bogging down the negotiations somewhat because of the importance Britain places upon inclusion of Poland in the scheme.

Poland Hesitates
The Polish government, it was stated, is worrying over guarantees to protect her from possible German aggression, should she join the proposed bloc.

Concern was still being expressed regarding the trend of events in the Mediterranean. Some quarters felt Germany's anger against Britain may cause the Germans to persuade Premier Mussolini to try to get some sort of quick settlement of his territorial demands upon France and then switch his campaign against British North African interests.

Fears were particularly felt for Egypt and the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan in this connection. Their borders, however, were recently strengthened following revelation of weak spots during the recent Anglo-Egyptian military maneuvers.

Meanwhile, the British continued efforts to bring Soviet Russia into the proposed line-up of anti-Hitler nations.

Await Moscow Reply

The Soviet embassy stated the British ambassador to Moscow conferred yesterday with Soviet Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinov, submitting a suggested draft of the proposed joint declaration against further German expansion.

The British government is now waiting for Moscow's reply.

At the Guild Hall, President Lebrun, who earlier met members of the diplomatic corps, including United States Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy at a brilliant Buckingham Palace ceremony, stressed the Anglo-French entente.

Replying to an address of welcome by the Lord Mayor of London, Lebrun said:

"Great Britain and France have only one desire—strengthening and maintenance of peace. We are anxious only to guarantee to the rising generations of whatever country they may belong security and happiness."

"We are resolved to put our hands to everything compatible with dignity and honor to prevent a return of the catastrophes which have cost so many years and so much blood without opposing themselves to anyone."

Board Of Y.W.C.A. Directors Approves Legislative Measures

Group Okays Neutrality Amendments; Also State Pre-Marital Exam

Last night the board of directors of the New Castle Y. W. C. A. went on record as approving two proposed amendments to the United States Neutrality act, and the bill in the Pennsylvania State legislature which would require health examinations for couples applying for marriage licenses.

The amendments to the Neutrality act would permit the president, after proclaiming the neutrality of the United States under this act, to extend the embargo provisions to cover essential war materials as well as munitions; and permit the president with the consent of congress to alter the terms of the neutrality proclamation so that the embargo on munitions, loans and supplementary war materials may apply only to a state or states which make war in violation of a treaty with the United States; while the state suffering the aggression would continue to be free to obtain supplies from this country.

The matter of revision of the local Y. W. C. A. constitution was brought up and Mrs. Roy Long, president, appointed Mrs. O. P. Brown, Mrs. Clara Perry, Mrs. W. J. Caldwell and Mrs. W. W. Duff as a committee to study the matter and make recommendations at the April meeting of the board. If the recommendations are approved at that time, they will be brought before the annual meeting of the entire Y. W. C. A. membership in May. The changes would concern the time of the annual meetings, and the appointment of an advisory committee of men.

Coming events announced to the board included an open meeting of the Blue Triangle club on April 12 when Mrs. J. L. March, president of the Youngstown Y. W. C. A., will speak, a concert by Rosa Page Welch, Negro singer of Chicago, on April 27 in First Presbyterian church, and the Y. W. C. A. regional conference in Jamestown, N. Y., May 5 to 7.

Teachers Salaries

Sharing interest with the Getz Allen Registration Bill was a measure introduced in the senate and referred to a committee, which would increase teachers' salaries by five per cent. The bill was sponsored by Sen. Franklin S. Edmonds, Philadelphia Republican.

Edmonds said $4,800,000 a biennium would be needed for the increase, and added:

"I don't see the money at the present time, but it seems to me that this is the right way to do it and I am hopeful that in some way it can be found."

Edmonds said passage of the Winner Amusement Tax Bill would provide ample funds. The Winner Bill, which imposes a 4 per cent tax, is now in committee. It is estimated $7,000,000 would be raised biennially by the bill if passed.

J. C. Patterson Funeral

A memorable tribute was paid to the late James C. Patterson of Pittsburgh, formerly of New Castle, on Tuesday afternoon. Over 400 people gathered at 2:30 o'clock in the Jos. S. Rice Co. chapel of New Castle for funeral services in memory of the well known former resident who was killed in an automobile accident last Saturday afternoon on the Harlansburg road.

Rarely is there seen at a funeral as many flowers as there was at the Rice chapel yesterday. They were massed in a solid wall covering one complete side of the room.

Dr. C. B. Winger, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Patterson was a former member and elder, assisted Rev. W. V. Parsons, pastor of the Brighton Road Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh, in conducting the rites. Mr. Patterson was an elder in the Brighton Road church, superintendent of the Sunday School and a teacher of a young boys' class. His death was a great shock to the Sunday School children, as well as to their elders, and they sent large baskets of flowers in mute testimony to their sorrow.

All offices, quarries, branch offices, and work shops of the Pittsburgh Limestone Company, an affiliate of the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Company, for which Mr. Patterson served as assistant auditor, were closed for the day, a touching demonstration of the regard held by the company and co-workers for the deceased.

Does Your Breath Broadcast—"I WEAR FALSE TEETH"?

Play Safe—Be Sure—Use Polident

People who wear plates or bridges often suffer from a special kind of bad breath. Dentists call it "denture breath."

You don't know if you have it—but it can spoil your happiness. Friends will shudder—people avoid you! And the worst of it is that ordinary brushing may not prevent it. Neither will mouth washes. For the odor comes from a mucin-scum that collects on plates and bridges. This scum soaks up germs and decay bacteria and causes a vile odor that you cannot detect.

One thing that definitely will stop "denture breath" is Polident! This new brushless cleaner has won the approval of thousands of dentists. Users say it's a blessing. Polident not only purifies false teeth—but also removes all stain, tarnish and deposits. Makes breath sweeter—plates look better and feel better. Costs only 30¢ at any drug store and lasts for many weeks. Money back if not delighted.

Cleans, Purifies Like Magic
Do this daily. Add a little Polident powder to 1/2 glass water. Stir. Then put in plate or bridge for 10 to 15 minutes. Rinse—and it's ready to use!

ler, the people do not want to go to war again—certainly not for Czechoslovakia, Rumania, or any other small European nation—and not even for France and England. The polls appear to confirm this view. Probably it is correct, but it is not in accord with the convictions of the President and his chief advisers on foreign affairs. Those who best know the facts are convinced that in mind and heart Mr. Roosevelt is an interventionist; that he believes that if a general conflict is precipitated between Germany on the one side and England and France on the other, we not only will find it impossible to remain out—but it would be folly to do so if we could.

EVERYTHING he has said and done since his Quarantine speech in Chicago last summer fits in with this conviction. Every close counselor on international matters he has cherished it. It follows, therefore, that it is a logical Administration step to modify or repeal the Neutrality Act so as to permit us to furnish England and France with arms, ammunition and supplies. The new Pittman proposal does exactly that. It seems considered impolitic for the President openly to espouse this modification just as it is considered unwise to be candid about the inevitability of our joining our former allies if the conflagration comes.

But that Mr. Roosevelt is for the Pittman plan is beyond question. If he did not actually say that our first line of defense is the European democracies, that is what he believes. The essence of his utterances is that supporting them is the best insurance against war. Certainly he has said so in effect at various times and places.

IN THIS position Mr. Roosevelt has the support of a great many Democrats, as well as Republicans, who are strongly opposed to him on practically every domestic issue. Even those of his critics, who recognize that a united nation back of his foreign policy might contribute to a forgetfulness of the incredible mess he has made with his New Deal policies and measurably restore his prestige, are glad to aid in such unification. They would like, however, to have him a little more candid and a little less subtle concerning this overwhelmingly vital business.

Says Germany Will Continue Land Grabbing

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, March 22.—"Germany will continue its land-grabbing drive until it reaches the border of Russia, and then a second world-war will be inevitable," was the prediction of Vincent Sheean, famous war correspondent, in a talk before Westminster college students here. For over 20 years, Sheean has covered the European situation for American magazines and newspapers.

Much of what has gone on in Europe for the past two years was predicted earlier by most European correspondents, according to Sheean.

"The frontiers set up in 1918 by the Allies were not good frontiers," according to Sheean, "and could not be expected to stand. They cut off many districts from Germany that contained German majorities."

Police were holding today Owen Ransom, a youth of 715 East Main street, who they claim, confessed to burglarizing several homes.

He returned the postal certificates and stock through the mail and threw the watches away. Police recovered the old coins, they report.

Residence of Homer Rowland, 233 Fern street. He obtained jewelry. Police recovered a rosary and a baby's ring which Ransom kept because he said they were pretty.

Residence of H. M. Guthrie, 227 Scott street. He secured a watch, stamps and insurance policies. He returned most of the articles taken from this home.

Ransom also had to enter homes in East Main street and Brooklyn avenue, according to a statement given to Chief of Detectives Ray Showalter.

The young man was taken into custody by Detectives John Moore and John Young Tuesday evening.

In commenting upon the arrest this morning, Chief of Police Ralph A. Criswell said Ransom denied having entered North Hill homes, quite a few robberies having occurred recently in that district.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—

Without Calomel—And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile isn't flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas bloats up your stomach. You get constipated. Your whole system is poisoned and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

A mere bowel movement doesn't get at the cause. It takes three good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." Harmless, gentle, yet amazing in making bile flow freely. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name. Refuse anything else. At all drug stores. 10¢ and 25¢.

Huffner Tells 'Y' Role In His Life

Writer Says Association Impressed Him While Visiting Europe

In the first of a short series of articles written to call attention of citizens to the annual membership drive of the New Castle Y. M. C. A., March 28-29, Frank Huffner of Atlantic avenue, known to many residents, writes:

Now, at 25, I feel like the 11-year-old in the "Y." I had previously sampled those exciting moments in the free gym and swimming classes given to the Newbeaver club.

Of course, this enthusiasm remained with me, for as I grew and became older and wiser, I learned to appreciate other benefits of this Christian association. As a Junior Hi-Y club vice president I realized how good social relations and clean sportsmanship with my fellowmen were a requisite to better living. In my travels abroad in 1932 this social aspect was broadened. Everywhere in European Y. M. C. A.'s that I visited I was impressed how they made one lose that feeling of a lost stranger, and always endeavored to brighten his sojourn there. Obviously, a stronger attachment for the "Y" resulted.

In the march of time I participated in many sports, leagues, circuses and conferences of the "Y." For three years after long hours as a service station attendant I found "Y" activities to be a bracer and pep restorer.

Having now matured into responsibility and the "Y" Key Men's club, I find no better pleasure than in working in membership drives. I want the Y. M. C. A. to help build and promote every boy's and young man's social, physical and religious life as it helped mine.

Farm Purchases Are Aided By Land Bank Loans In State

Secretary Of Lawrence County
Unit Gives Figures On Farm
Loans Last Year

In 1938 Pennsylvania farmers, tenants and farm laborers purchased $1.8 million through the credit facilities afforded by the Federal land bank system, George B. Moore, secretary-treasurer of the Lawrence County National Farm Loan association, said today. These purchases represent $221,042 in loan proceeds.

Most of the 81 new owners bought farms in their own communities from retired farmers, heirs of an estate, farms owned by the Federal land bank, or from former owners. Loans to buy a farm are not made to cover the full purchase price, as a suitable down payment must be made on the property, Mr. Moore said. By this process, the purchaser has a sizeable equity in the property from the beginning.

Dr. Dafoe's Column On The Quintuplets And The Care Of Your Children

Copyright 1938, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

CONSULT YOUR DOCTOR FOR BABY'S CORRECTIVE DIET

People often write to me asking what we give the quintuplets when they are constipated. Invariably I point out to them that what we do for the quints mightn't be at all suitable for their child. Your doctor is the man to find out what is wrong with your child, and he is the one who will give a corrective diet that will keep baby's bowels working as they should. Then, too, if medicines are needed, he is the one to prescribe them.

For one thing, the doctor who is looking after the child always bears in mind the general condition and health of his little patient. Part of his diagnosis will be of the kind of movement that is passed. These and other symptoms will help him decide what is the best thing to do. I know we have always followed this practice with the quintuplets. We have looked after their diet, and the result has been that we haven't had any trouble with constipation. We have found that fruit juices and cooked fruits are valuable in keeping the bowels healthy and working properly. If the child's bowels show a tendency to tighten up a bit, then increase the amount of fruit juice it is getting. Another thing we have found beneficial is apple sauce. We were afraid to use this when they were very young because there is some danger that it may cause an irritation of the bowel. Also after they passed a certain age we gave them coarse cereals such as oatmeal. This too aided in keeping bowels normal.

Perhaps the most important thing of all, however, was the institution of regular habits. If you can do this as we have succeeded in doing, it in our nursery here at Callender, then your worries about constipation won't amount to much. It is important to start at an early age because by the time a child is four or five months old, he can pass a movement at regular times of day.

At times we have aided bowel movements in the quints by massaging the abdomen. This is done by rubbing the hand over the abdomen in the region of the large bowel. The hand is rubbed from the bottom to top on the right side, and then top of the right side, and then across and down the left side. Occasionally we used a suppository.

If a laxative must be used, use one that only softens the waste matter and doesn't irritate the bowel at all. When we give it, we divide the dose up into small parts and give it at intervals through the day.

Italy Finding Abyssinia Is Hard To Subdue

Trade Is Stagnant While Chieftains Refuse To Submit To Italian Rule

MOTOR CONVOYS ARE ATTACKED

By CHARLES A. SMITH
International News Service Staff
Correspondent
(Copyright, 1939.)

LONDON, March 22.—Italy is today rapidly discovering that her hope of transforming conquered Abyssinia into the jewel of the Italian Empire will not easily be fulfilled. Economically, Abyssinia is slipping steadily from bad to worse. Trade is stagnant. The Italian overlordship except perhaps in the chief towns, is on a very shaky foundation. A resentful native population constantly harries the Italian master both in commerce and in the field. These were the considered conclusions forwarded here today by a responsible neutral investigator who has been able to obtain confidential information about the true situation prevailing inside Abyssinia. Despite vigorous Italian repressive measures according to this informant, there are still many Abyssinian chieftains who refuse to submit to Italian rule.

Key Chieftain Still In Revolt
Ababa, the former police chief of Abyssinia, is declared to be the principal chieftain still in revolt and the best organized. He has a nondescript army of about 10,000 men, concentrated in the Fitze zone, about fifty miles from Addis Ababa and constantly attacks the Italian motorized columns which convey food and ammunition into Addis Ababa. Captured trucks are looted and destroyed, the drivers and soldiers murdered and the officers held as hostages.

Although the Italians suffer severely as a result of these constant raids however, the Abyssinian rebels as at present constituted, are unable to do great harm due to lack of cohesion and the absence of a strong leader.

It is generally believed they will slowly vanish, and that the Italian military authorities will succeed in exterminating them progressively.

Tribesmen Need Food
The impression was gained by the investigator that the rebel tribesmen need only to receive regular supplies of food and ammunition to become particularly dangerous for the Italians. This will not come about, however except in event of a new European war, when anti-Italian nations might be tempted to arm and feed the tribesmen in the hope of creating a diversion for the Italians.

The informant pictured the Abyssinian natives as disgusted over Italian rule and terrorized at the treatment alleged to have been inflicted on them by the conqueror. Food is terribly scarce, disease is rife in many towns, and there have been several serious outbreaks of pestilence in some of the chief towns notably Diredawa, where recently 100 to 150 deaths occurred daily.

Heavy Disease Fatalities
It has been computed that several thousand have died from disease in recent months in the Diredawa zone, where many villages have been completely wiped out. The Italians today are maintaining approximately between eighty and ninety thousand troops in Abyssinia, Somaliland and Eritrea. More than one-half of these are colored troops.

A large part of the Italian equipment is declared to have lost 50 per cent of its effective fighting power due to lack of replacements. The air force, for example, is alleged to be exactly the same as at the time of the Abyssinian campaign. Fervent armament activity in Italy itself, and the need for building up an effective reserve there and in Italian Libya has meant the neglect of the Italian East African colonial fighting power, according to the investigator.

Under the auspices of the international Ski Federation Poland will organize the international ski championships in 1939. The international federation comprises 26 national ski associations.

The Human Side Of The News

(By EDWIN C. HILL)

Copyright 1939 King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Cold winds may blow and snow may carpet the frozen ground here in parts of the east. But in Southern California spring has arrived, ushered in by St. Joseph's swallows arriving from their winter homes in Mexico or South America to reopen their summer apartments in the old mission of San Juan Capistrano.

Not in 70 years have the swallows failed to return to their old nests to be on hand for the feast of St. Joseph's Day, as the mission fathers aver. Each March 19th for all those 70 years they have come winging in on schedule, and each 23rd of October they have departed with a vast flutter of wings. Generation after generation, decade after decade, the swallows have followed this schedule.

Yet there is always a degree of doubt and concern on the part of the old-time inhabitants as to whether the little time clock in the swallow's group soul might slip or fail, whether they are arriving or departing. The newspapers speak of the awaited event in the morning and again at night, and the voice of the radio keeps many thousands of people posted as to one of the most mysterious migrations man knows about.

When morning broke in California yesterday, every niche and cranny of the adobe walls of the old San Juan Capistrano Mission was occupied by a family of swallows. For it was March 19th, St. Joseph's Day in the calendar of the Catholic church, and countless swallows returned in their thousands from some remote winter resort—returned to the summer home they have occupied for as long as living men can remember.

On the morning of St. Joseph's Day every year, the sky is black with them for hours. They appear from somewhere in the Pacific to circle over the ancient mission, and with one concerted rush, like the charge of an army, they drive out the swifts and yellow-tail sparrows. Every year this fierce battle takes place, and every year as on yesterday, the returning swallows are triumphant.

When the morning of the 23rd of next October arrives, the swallows will seem to be going about their ordinary affairs. Presently a great twittering is heard. At noontime a few swallows will fly high above the mission, circling excitedly. And before 1 p. m. they are gone in their thousands. Nothing is more mysterious than the great bird migrations, over thousands of miles and unfailing on schedule. "Inherited race memories" seems to be as near as we can get to the answer, but the ornithologists qualify this by saying that no one really knows whether birds have memory, as we know it. Our most magnificent flying bird was the passenger pigeon of 75 years ago. Once there were billions of them. Now they are utterly extinct.

Some years ago congress offered $10,000 for a single pair. Not one could be found. They had been slaughtered by the millions by the pioneers pushing westward. Records of that day show that a million were killed by guns and clubs in a single attack, with as many as 500 men participating. Audubon tells of a single flock of about 1,250,000,000 birds which ate 8,500,000 bushels of nuts in a day. These great flocks swept through the sky with a "roar like a freight train" we are told by writers who observed the flights.

Flying at a height of from 500 to 1,000 feet, they made a mile a minute, darkening the sky, and it required three hours for the entire flock to pass. These were daytime flights in which the pigeons computed hundreds of miles to food or water, returning to their nests at sundown.

Merston estimated that a fairly large flock was a mile wide and perhaps 240 miles long. What causes these mysterious migrations, that instinct, passed on from generation to generation, to move en masse at a certain hour on a certain day? Necessity must have been the original cause, and now it is the "buried urge," such as drives the little rook-like lemmings to self destruction in the sea.

In northern Europe, in every fifth year to the day, the lemmings make their westward rush not to a richer land, but to wholesale destruction in the North Sea. They gather in bands numbering many thousands under their grizzled kings and sweep toward the sea, killing and devouring as they go. And not even the chill sight and feel of the sea can turn them back, so strong is that buried urge in every lemming's blood.

Mysterious and fascinating as is the tale of the return of the swallows to San Juan Capistrano every St. Joseph's Day, there is something even more marvelous and mysterious in the incredible flight made every year by the tiniest bird in all creation—that glittering, coruscating, darting, flashing tiny heart-beat called the hummingbird. There is not enough wisdom in all science to tell us why that tiny little creature can take wing in the state of Maine, fly steadily southward across all eastern America and, with scarcely a pause, wing its heroic way over the broad Gulf of Mexico and, finally, deep into the jungles of Brazil.

DAILY DOZEN

Myrtle won't munch much with the mumps.

The parotid glands, below the ears, swell during mumps. This makes chewing difficult and painful.

Mumps is an infectious and contagious disease.

It occurs mostly in children between 5 and 15 years of age.

Mumps may occur in all climates, usually during cold months.

It generally appears where children have been in close contact.

After exposure, the swelling comes in about 3 weeks.

There is a mild rise in temperature for 4 to 5 days.

The child is kept in bed until after the swelling disappears.

Complications may follow, but are rare in children's cases.

An attack of mumps produces immunity to another attack.

Weak Undertone In Stock Market

Selling Wave Develops At Outset But Losses Are Pared By Noon

By LESLIE GOULD
International News Service
Financial Writer

NEW YORK, March 22.—A new wave of selling swept the stock market today on Germany's latest move in grabbing Memel from Lithuania, and reports of additional mass troop movement in Europe.

Leaders dropped 1 to more than 5 points before support was met, and the sudden rush of liquidation forced the ticker to run four minutes late at one time. Losses were pared by about a point before noon but the general list maintained a weak undertone.

The break here, following yesterday's technical recovery, was fore-shadowed by all-around weakness in the principal European markets prior to the New York opening.

London, Amsterdam and Paris all were under heavy pressure. Alien currencies, too, lost considerable ground to the dollar as continental capital continue to flee to the haven of America.

Noted Minister Of Marble Collegiate Church In New York City Pays Visit Here

Dr. Norman Vincent Peale, minister of the famous Marble Collegiate church on Fifth avenue, New York City, made a surprise visit Tuesday to the home of his close friend, John Harvard, 416 Euclid avenue, father of Sue Harvard (Mrs. Herbert Newton Armstrong), who is the soprano soloist in the quartet of the church.

Dr. Peale is conducting Lenten services in the Sixth United Presbyterian church on Highland avenue, Pittsburgh, under Dr. A. R. Robinson, pastor. Having the distinction of being chosen this year, Dr. Peale will remain in Pittsburgh the entire week, returning to the pulpit of his own church in New York Sunday morning.

Herbert Newton Armstrong, husband of Sue Harvard, has been a senior elder in Dr. Peale's church for several years.

Dr. Peale was a dinner guest at the Harvard home, and this morning left for the Theological Seminary at Pittsburgh, with which Dr. C. J. Williamson, former pastor of the New Castle Highland U. P. church, is associated.

Prospects Of Labor Peace Very Remote

John L. Lewis Makes Fighting Speech Today In Regard To Labor Peace

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, March 22.—Prospects for peace between the CIO and the A. F. of L. grew more uncertain today when John L. Lewis, CIO chief, in a "fighting" speech asserted:

"The CIO does not propose to dissolve and chop itself into a multitude of pieces as the quid pro quo of becoming associated with the A. F. of L. or merely to please advocates and supporters of craft unions."

Lewis used the tri-district conference anthracite miners as the sounding board for his latest blast at the American Federation of Labor.

"The CIO did not start out to organize the organized but the A. F. of L. is now organizing unions to absorb CIO members even in our own industry," Lewis said.

"A union which seeks to destroy us was issued a charter by the A. F. of L. (Lewis referred to the Progressive Miner's union).

"A former member of our United Mine Workers—be it said to his shame—issued that charter. (Here Lewis referred to William M. Green, A. F. of L. president.)

"The CIO will not long tolerate this. It will seek to defend itself. The day will come when patience will cease to be a virtue."

The speech was regarded as one of the strongest Lewis has made and especially significant in view of the "peace" negotiations which are under way between the two divisions of organized labor at the insistence of President Roosevelt.

Officers Seize Large Still On Tuesday Night

Thought likely to be the plant of a bootlegging ring in western Pennsylvania, a 250-gallon still, mash, finished liquor, boiler, tanks, corn sugar and empty five-gallon cans were seized by state and Federal liquor enforcement officers Tuesday night in Neshannock township.

Isiah McCants, colored, said by officers to be the proprietor of the still, was arrested and taken to the county jail. He lived in a small shanty-like structure near the still house.

Included in the capture were the following:

- One 250-gallon copper still.
- One large boiler which provided the steam for the still. Coke was used in firing the boiler.
- 5400 gallons of mash in 14 huge metal vats running in size from 350 to 450 gallons each.
- 600 pounds of corn sugar.
- 30 gallons of finished moonshine whiskey.
- 650 5-gallon cans.
- 1 automobile. Slight value.

Recently, officers say McCants bought a small piece of land and on it erected a building which looks like an old fashioned wagon shed, about 75 feet long and 25 feet wide.

PITTSBURGH, March 22.—John Fremont Cox, 35-year-old Munhall attorney, has been selected by the Democrats as their candidate for the senatorial vacancy caused by the resignation of Allegheny Governor J. Henney, it was learned today.

Cox, who is now serving as Pittsburgh borough solicitor, was chosen at a closed meeting of the chairman from the 45th senatorial district last night. His name, it was understood, will be submitted to the state executive committee meeting in Harrisburg Thursday for formal approval.

His opponent will be selected by the Republican county committee at a meeting tomorrow night. Attorney James G. Fulton, it was learned, is the leading contender in the race.

SEVENTH WARD NEWS

Road Committee
Announced Today

Jack Brettell Names W. W. Raub As Chairman For Furthering Rout 18 Task

Jack Brettell, president of the Seventh Ward Civic club, and local temporary chairman for the Route 18 project, today announced the members of a committee to petition the court for this project.

For chairman of the committee, Brettell selected W. W. Raub, a well-known resident of Edensburg. Raub is to be aided by the following: John Walters, Harry Elder, and Patrick Scanlon, of Mahoningtown; and Bert Coates of Union Township.

In addition to petitioning the court on this matter, the committee will be instructed to attend the meeting of the district Planning Commission, to be held at Youngstown, on April 18, and present the proposition to them for their approval and support.

Authority for the selection of this committee was voted Brettell at a mass meeting held recently in the Mahoning Junior High School.

This project, proposes the connecting of Ohio Route 18 with Pennsylvania Route 18. This would necessitate a connecting road of approximately 10 miles, from Mahoningtown to Lowellville, via Edensburg.

Brettell Named To Represent Group

It was learned today that Jack Brettell, president of the Seventh Ward Civic club, has been chosen to represent this group in the organization of the Greater New Castle Association.

Since taking the presidency of the Civic club, Brettell has been working hard and doing a fine job of handling the various activities, it was learned from other members.

Call Meeting Of
Ward Civic Club

Announcement was made today that a meeting of the Seventh Ward Civic club has been called for Wednesday, March 29, in the Mahoning Methodist church.

This event will be in the form of a luncheon meeting. Matters pertaining to the Greater New Castle Association will be discussed, as will be the Route 18 project, it was learned.

NEW GROUP WILL PLAN ACTIVITIES
FOR SCOUT TROOP

Hereafter activities of Boy Scout Troop 4 will be arranged and carried out by members of a newly organized leaders council. This group is composed of all of the patrol leaders of the troop.

At a meeting of this group, held recently in the home of John McCann, Clayton street, plans were completed for the meeting of the troop on Thursday night, in the Madison Avenue Christian church.

According to Wilfred Paul, Scoutmaster of Troop 4, summer activities for the troop are now being arranged, and a varied program of activities will be provided.

NEWS BRIEFS IN WARD DISTRICT

Many motorists have been heard to remark that the traffic light at the corner of Madison avenue and North Liberty street is very difficult to see. The lights are too small.

All of the Seventh Ward churches are planning special programs for Easter Sunday. Two cantatas are being practiced daily, and other special Easter music.

Every day the officials of the Mahoningtown post office find a volume of useless mail matter in the waste baskets in the office lobby.

The huge volume indicates that a large percentage of the mail is nothing but unread advertisements.

Quarry that was used sometime ago by the WPA workmen on the side of the Mt. Jackson hill seems to have been completely abandoned. Guard rails have been erected to keep cars from going over the edge into the stone quarry.

Members of the Mahoning Methodist church have been looking forward for some time to the series of special services to begin at that church next Sunday evening. List of speakers for these services will be announced soon, it was learned today.

Next Sunday will be observed as "Loyalty Day", at the Mahoningtown Presbyterian church, with a special service at 11 o'clock. This service will also mark the end of the church fiscal year.

START TO ERECT STEEL FENCE AT NEW SUB-STATION

Workmen at the new Cedar street sub-station of Pennsylvania Power company began Tuesday afternoon to erect a high steel fence about the area in which the new equipment will be placed.

This new fence, when completed, will join with the present fence, and will serve to keep persons away from the power lines and transformers.

TROOP TO MEET
Members of the Girl Scout Troop 19, will meet this evening at 6:30, in the Mahoning Methodist church.HOSPITAL

Annual Banquet At
Y. W. C. A. Tuesday

Business Girls Hear Address On Democracy By Miss Elsie Calvin

Over a half-hundred Y. W. C. A. business girls attended the annual nation-wide banquet in the private dining room of the "Y" Tuesday evening.

Miss Elsie Calvin of the senior high school faculty was the guest speaker. Her subject was "What About Economic Democracy?". The same subject was used by speakers at all of the Y. W. C. A. nation-wide banquets held simultaneously throughout the United States and in some foreign countries. Greetings from business girls in other cities and countries were read.

Miss Floy Owens, chairman of the business girls department, presided. Mrs. William Caldwell led the group singing. Several selections were beautifully sung by the Schubert Sextet of women from the First Presbyterian church. Mrs. W. O. Mooney offered the nation-wide prayer.

Arrangements for the event were made by the Junior Business Girls, Square Circle and Blue Triangle clubs. The program committee consisted of Miss Marie Isolda, chairman; Misses Erma Eckert and Mary Albee. Guests included women from the B. P. W. Y. W. C. A. board and Business Girls committee. The dinner was served by the Joy Givers club of the Elm street branch.

State Inspector
Heard By Bakers

Tuesday evening, The New Castle Bakers Association held a special meeting at the Jefferson Baking Company plant.

The main speaker of the evening was G. Gillen, State Food Inspector. His subject was, "sanitation in all shops." He asked retail bakers to keep all baked goods well covered when on display. Mr. Gillen asked all bakers to cooperate with him, within the next ten days, otherwise he would prosecute offenders.

The bakers present agreed to cooperate, and thanked Mr. Gillen for his words of warning.

The next meeting of the bakers, will be on Wednesday, April 5.

A slight accident occurred on Court street a few days ago. A car pulled away from the curb and as it did another car swung around the curve in the street and crumpled the fender of the first car.

The drivers got out. "What's your name?" asked the first one of the second. "Frank Conti", what's yours?"

"Frank Conti", was the answer. One lived in Mahoningtown, the other in Hillsville.

In the case of Frank Galzerano, charged with issuing fraudulent

Workmen are busy this week repairing and painting the tin work on the roof of the sheriff's house and the jail. There will be little need for repairs in the court house for some time as in the past eighteen months the county commissioners have done extensive repair and renovating work.

Possibly the next job to be done will be to paper court room number two.

Club At Luncheon Hears Hadley, Supreme President Of P. H. C.

The life of Thomas Jefferson, who felt that being President of the United States was not the greatest service of his busy life, was interestingly reviewed for the Lions club at its weekly luncheon yesterday by Samuel H. Hadley, supreme president of the Protected Home Circle, and a prominent resident of Sharon.

Jefferson, Hadley said, felt that his authorship of the Declaration of Independence and the Virginia statutes for religious freedom and his founding of the University of Virginia was a far more important work. And he had that inscribed on the tombstone above his grave.

Hadley was introduced to the club by Numa P. Vidal, Jr.

Sylvan Heights League To Start

Officers For Coming Year Elected At Meeting In Clubhouse Last Evening

SEVERAL TEAMS SEEK ADMISSION

Prospects for another good season were indicated at a meeting of officers and team representatives of the Sylvan Heights golf league, at a meeting in the clubhouse at the city-owned course last evening.

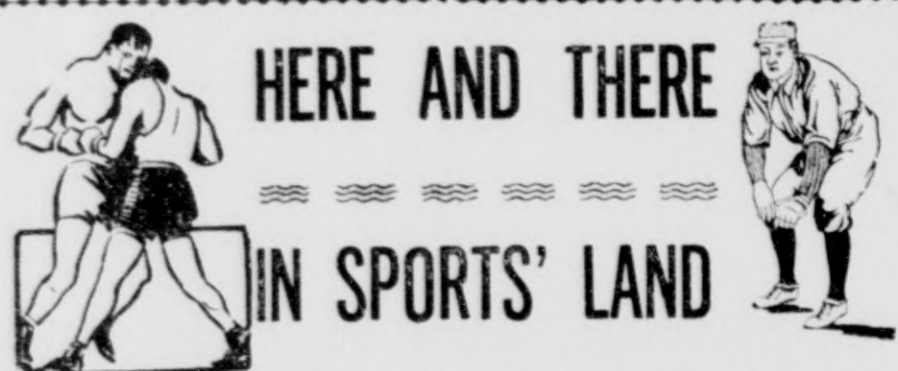

Election of officers resulted in President A. B. Jackson being re-elected for the coming year, with E. H. Browning being elected vice president and Charles E. Allen secretary. Ernie Palus and Charles Perotta were named on the handicap committee, and Frank Summers, John Connery and Walter S. Hart were named to the entertainment committee for the coming year.

In addition to the teams which composed the league last year, two new aggregations are seeking admission, although several teams which had representation last year, were not represented at last evening's meeting. The new teams seeking admission, who were not represented last year, are the Universal Sanitary Manufacturing, Fort Pitt, Shelby Social club and Sagertown. The league name was changed from the New Castle golf league to the Sylvan Heights golf league, and it was voted to play the matches on Friday evening instead of Tuesday evening, as last year. Play will start promptly at 5:45 o'clock, with 6:15 the deadline.

Another meeting of the league officers and team representatives will take place on Friday evening, April 7, at the Sylvan Heights club house, when franchises will be assigned and a schedule drawn up.

The entertainment committee is planning a big get-together for the golfers prior to the season opening.

America's Davis Cup prospects improve as the result of a sudden shakeup in the makeup of the Australian team.

There was a divergence of opinion among fans following the Arkett-Wargo fight in The Arena Monday night. Some believed Wargo had won and others favored Arkett. Judge Perotta gave the decision to Wargo. Judge Frank rendered a verdict in favor of Arkett. The split caused Referee Tom McMahon's vote to rule. It was given to Arkett. It was one of the most aggressive fights Arkett has staged here. It would be a good re-match. Fans have a right to express their opinions and because they make boxing possible, a return bout might suit their fancy. There were no sensational knockouts in the show.

"Flip" McConaghy, well known about town, has been here and there. In fact, we'd like to know where in these United States of ours Flip is. And, inasmuch as Sir Flip is the topic of our lead paragraph today, it might be explained that it was his love for baseball and an education that caused him to do much meandering. He studied in various schools, played on their teams and also played semipro. He performed alongside of boys who later romped in the Big Show of Baseball. Not so long ago we met "Flip" and he told of one Doug Belsford of the Black Hills. Doug was not such a hot ball player but he had a nice fat pocketbook and inasmuch as the team now and then needed expenses to keep it going, the manager, likewise Doug's comrades, deemed it advisable to let him pitch offener than his ability called for. It so happened that the team had to make a night jump. The manager got Pullman berths for the team. Doug had never been in a sleeper before, hence he exclaimed: "What's the hammock for?" "Flip" took it upon himself to explain that the management of the team, realizing Doug's ability as a pitcher desired to save his arm and accordingly had, after some difficulty, succeeded in getting the railroad company to especially install the hammock so Doug could rest his arm in the hammock all night. The angel of the team followed out orders and when he wrapped himself in the arms of Morpheus, his arm was lodged in the hammock. Needless to say the arm was so tired the next morning the manager had to put in a "substitute" for Doug. But all good things come to an end and one day Doug got wise his comrades were using chicanery. He disappeared, which was quite a financial punch on the nose to the management of the ball team. And by the way did you know that "Flip's" brother, Dr. Jack, captained Pitt's baseball team? He did.

It is quite ludicrous to hear the emission of boos when Announcer Bugs Walther stentoriously yells, "and the referee, Tom McMahon!" Not all the boys who pay the way for fistic jamborees here know his record. It was one which was better than it was bad. He battled such tough hoppers as Gunboat Smith and took on Sailor Burke, a rugged, game, hard-hitting chap, not once, but three times. He engaged in a Battle of Punch with the Man Mountain, Tom Cowler, who in those days Jim Corbett predicted would become champion. When Tom fought Jess Willard, it was another case of Gullivers travels with Tom. The Lilliputian and Jess, Messer Gulliver. The fans have a right to express whatever sentiment they wish. McMahon should not take the anvil noise of heart because a safe bet would be a dollar to a useless collar button the fans like him and give him the raspberry just because they want to watch his reaction. Relative to this Tom might call forth that "Sticks and stones may break my bones, but names will never hurt me." It was in Australia that the sticks and stones could have broken his bones. It seems he fought an Australian and the fans didn't like the way things went. When Tom left the arena they stoned him. They don't do that here. The fans only give him the razz. And how, realizing almost everyone likes Tom, who has spent all he ever earned outside of this city, inside of the city, of which he is a resident. Let's fool Tom the next time he enters the ring as a referee. Yes, fool him by applauding the mention of his name. It might be appreciated. Tom is getting up in years as those gray hairs prove.

Lower Merion stepped into the P. I. A. A. eastern basketball championship last night by defeating Williamsport, 40-23. Williamsport substituted for Berwick which refused to play last night. Homestead will meet Lower Merion Saturday night in Philadelphia for the state championship, having defeated Erie Academy last night 28-24.

Umpires Will Meet Tonight

"Open House" by the Lawrence County Umpires Association will be the order tonight at the "Y" as the ump, fans and players, gather to discuss the rule changes and to talk over various interesting situations that come up during the progress of a game.

The meeting will start at 8:15 o'clock. Members of the City Umpires association are asked to attend. Leo W. Hill will have charge of the meeting. The meeting will be open to general discussion by all who care to ask or answer questions.

Doctors Okay Tony Galento

Will File Report With Boxing Commission Okaying Galento-Louis Bo June 28

By LAWTON CARVER
International News Service Sports Editor

(Copyright, 1939)
NEW YORK, March 22.—Prodded, explored, timed, tested and befuddled by it all, Two-Ton Tarzan Galento has been approved by five examining physicians for his world heavyweight title challenge against Champion Joe Louis and the blood-letting will be staged as scheduled on June 28, a gentlemanly vinty interested in the million dollar spectacle revealed to the writer today.

He said Galento already had been certified in written reports filed with the New York boxing commission, which will withhold formal announcement until tomorrow or later.

In Good Shape.
"Galento was found to be in good condition and he also is what Commissioner Bill Brown calls 'organically sound' and you can say the fight is definitely on insofar as this examination is concerned." According to the information which comes supposedly straight from the torture chamber where Galento went under the microscope yesterday.

He squirmed there, visibly disturbed as he distrustfully eyed instruments that he was told were a sphygmomanometer, an ophthalmoscope and an electro-cardiograph, he was left virtually speechless for first time in nearly 30 years, but his sweat-soaked torso showed no flaws that might have lingered as an aftermath to the siege of pneumonia that floored him and came close to keeping him down for the count last summer.

Elsesser Brothers Fine Ball Players

West Pittsburg Has Fine Pair In Johnny And Richard Elsesser, Infielders

There is another brother act on the West Pittsburg baseball team—the Elsesser brothers—Johnny, the shortstop, and Richard, the first baseman. Both are fine ball players and have been great aids to the "Gas House" gang in winning two straight City league titles.

Manager Danny DeGenova has high regard for both boys and considers the team fortunate in having a pair with the ability of these two fine young men.

Johnny Elsesser has covered a lot of ground around the short field for the "Gas Housers" and is also one of the best hitters on the team. Richard at first base, is a stand-out, and at the plate can smack them with the rest.

When West Pittsburg starts training for the 1939 season, the Elsesser boys will be out there doing their level best as always.

Rambling Around World Of Sports

The New Castle Rifle club ranks as one of the greatest in the United States. Because some of the other more popular pastimes, the sport has occupied a minute place in the local athletic world. As a result, the accomplishments of the local rifle experts have gone by unnoticed. It seems as though the local club is known everywhere but in the home town. A few members of the local club are standouts in the matter of accuracy with the rifle. Even several of the fairer-sex have gained a nation-wide reputation for their adeptness with a rifle.

Some of the feats... As members of the Penn-Ohio league, the New Castle shooters won the title in 1937 and 1938 and are on their way to a third banner. After dropping the first half of the race, the localities are undefeated in the second half. At the conclusion, New Castle will probably battle it out with McDonald, O., for the championship. The squad includes 25 shooters. Some of the more prominent shooters include: Jess Moore, leader on the team; George Milnes, Bill Houck, George Finley, Wilbur Thomas, L. W. Hill and Dr. Hockenberry of Slippery Rock. Mrs. Ruby Moore ranks as one of the greatest women rifle shooters in the country. Eleanor Crawford and Pauline Starke are other female expert shots.

Training camp briefs... Up until Tuesday, the Pittsburgh Pirates had failed to hit the winning column. On the other hand, the lowly St. Louis Browns are burning up the "Grapefruit League" with six victories and nary a setback... Dolph Camilli of the Dodgers posted a new mark by blasting three apies over the right field barrier against the Cards, Monday... To make sure that players concentrate on baseball and nothing else, moguls of the Washington Senators have issued an order prohibiting players from playing golf. Violation means a $25 fine... "I think I have more good ball players this year than ever before. Why, my second stringers are as good as some that will start the National league race," William Terry of the Jints speaking.

A little more baseball... Joe McCarthy, pilot of the Yankees, is teaching Tommy Henrich how to play first base. Is this a tip-off that Gehrig's major league days are numbered? In 1938, for the first time since 1926, Columbia Lou failed to wind up with a .300 average or better. His life time average is .341. The rise of Vander Meer is truly one of the oddities of baseball. With Syracuse in 1937, Vandy was able to pull up with only five victories against 11 losses. In the big show last year he startled historians with a pair of no-hitters in consecutive order... The Pittsburgh roster looks like a California directory. Seven of the players are Californians... Baseball master minds agree that the acquisition of Werber may mean the National league title for the Cincinnati Reds. It's puzzling how the American loop let him loose.

Loose ends in sports... The New York Giants have finished first 15 times in the National league. In the years 1883 to 1938 inclusive, the Giants have won 4,100 games against 3,123 losses... The first intercollegiate baseball game was played in 1859, Amherst battling Williams.

Davey O'Brien To Play Pro Football With Philadelphia

(International News Service)

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—Philadelphia professional grid fans today were in high jubilation over announcement that Davey O'Brien, brilliant Texas Christian forward passer and No. 1 player of the 1938 season, definitely will play with the Philadelphia Eagles next fall.

Word of the agreement—wiping out two previous failures to obtain O'Brien's signature to a contract—was telephoned to this city from Dallas, Texas, by Bert Bell, owner and president of the Philly club.

O'Brien, Bell explained, will sign a contract in Dallas this afternoon. At the same time, reports insisted O'Brien's stubborn refusal to enter pro ranks ever since he was "drawn" by the Eagles last Autumn was overcome by offer of one of the highest salaries ever paid in the National league.

The figure was put at $10,000, plus a percentage of gate receipts. O'Brien twice refused to play for Bell for sums of $5,000. The new offer also guarantees employment the entire year, it was said.

Camera Club Meets
Wednesday Evening

Members of the New Castle Camera club will devote attention to a study of portrait lighting when they gather in the Warner studio, South Croton avenue, for a regular meeting Wednesday night at 8.

Members are requested to bring their cameras. The photographic results are to be exhibited at the next meeting. Warner will have charge.

Tomorrow night is also the time for the monthly print competition. The subject is "Bridges" and each member is to have a mounted 5x7 print illustrating the subject.

FROM ME TO YOU

By MESEALL

From what we hear... we think that you folks of New Castle are going to have something to be proud of when the Park is opened this summer... at least you will be able to go to the park and feel that it entirely belongs to you. Complete details as to the above statement will come in the very near future.

Looking around the town we see several new homes in the process of construction... that is a sign of something or other and we would like to see many more... homes in the price range of the average working man. One that he can buy merely by paying so much per month and which is about the average of a medium rent. Other towns seem to be working this idea rather well... why can't we do it here in New Castle? We are not saying this in a sarcastic way, but merely for information.

It has been some time since we have mentioned "Buy In New Castle", not because we have lost sight of the fact, but merely because some of the other thoughts have cleared the bars first. However we should not forget the fact that what helps New Castle helps you. If more money is kept in town it has a greater chance of getting back in your pocketbook. You know, some towns would even let outsiders sell everyday products within their city. Very few places have laws governing this fact but the citizens themselves do the choosing. Do the citizens of New Castle accept this code?

It won't be long until the New York World's Fair traffic will be starting... everyone who spends much time on the street should be able to answer all questions regarding the town... what road lead in and out and how these roads can be reached. You will be surprised how much this adds to the town. Every policeman should bend over double to be polite to motorists. Know their way about and all the good eating and sleeping places. We are going to be a town that people will want to return to. This advertisement costs us nothing but is priceless.

"Reflect upon your present blessings of which every man has many not on your past misfortunes, of which all men have some."... DICKENS.

Jimmy Stewart Boosts For Summer Theatres

By MILTON HARKER
(Copyright, 1939, by International News Service)

HOLLYWOOD, March 22—Jimmy Stewart, who's been coming along like a house afire during the past year, is an ardent booster of the summer theatres.

He thinks they're a great aid to drama, great fun for the public and great fun for the actors, too.

Jimmy knows a thing or two about them, for he's played in several. Of them all, he likes the Westchester playhouse at Mt. Kisco, N. Y., the best, but he had the grandest time of all four years ago at one called the Red Barn, about 30 miles out from New York City on Long Island.

"It was a very little theatre," Jimmy recalled today on the set of "It's a Wonderful World" at M-G-M. "It was situated right up against the railroad tracks. When we started rehearsing a play, I wondered at first why someone would sit by with a watch timing the first act very carefully.

"It turned out there was a train passing the theatre at 9:05 and we had to get the first act finished in time for intermission at that time. If we didn't, no one could hear what was going on on the stage because the train whistled and rang its bell and shook the theatre to a fare-ye-well.

"We always managed to get the first act done before the train came along, but I remembered one night—it was the Fourth of July—when the train was late. We waited and waited and waited for the train to come along so we could get the second act going. Finally, someone came behind stage and said we'd better get going because otherwise the audience would get sick of waiting and go home.

"So we decided to go ahead, train or no train. It happened that this play was taking place in an airplane over the ocean. I was the pilot, a dope fiend, carrying a cargo of passengers all of whom wanted to die. As the action went along, you could hear the hum of the motors.

"Well, we were right in the midst of all this when way off in the distance we heard the train. We tried to talk louder and louder, but I think the engineer had put on a couple of extra whistles and bells just for the benefit of the Fourth of July.

"It was really funny when the train went by. Here we were, supposed to be over the ocean, and a train was nearly shaking the plane apart.

"The audience must have laughed themselves sick but we were too busy trying to make ourselves heard to notice."

Forest Fires Are Feared In State

Army Of Forest Fire Fighters Is Being Mobilized For Action In Field

(International News Service)
HARRISBURG, March 22.—An army of forest fire fighters—50,000 strong—was being mobilized today for action in the field.

Forest areas, particularly in the southern section of Pennsylvania, were reported to be as dry as a tinderbox because of recent weather conditions.

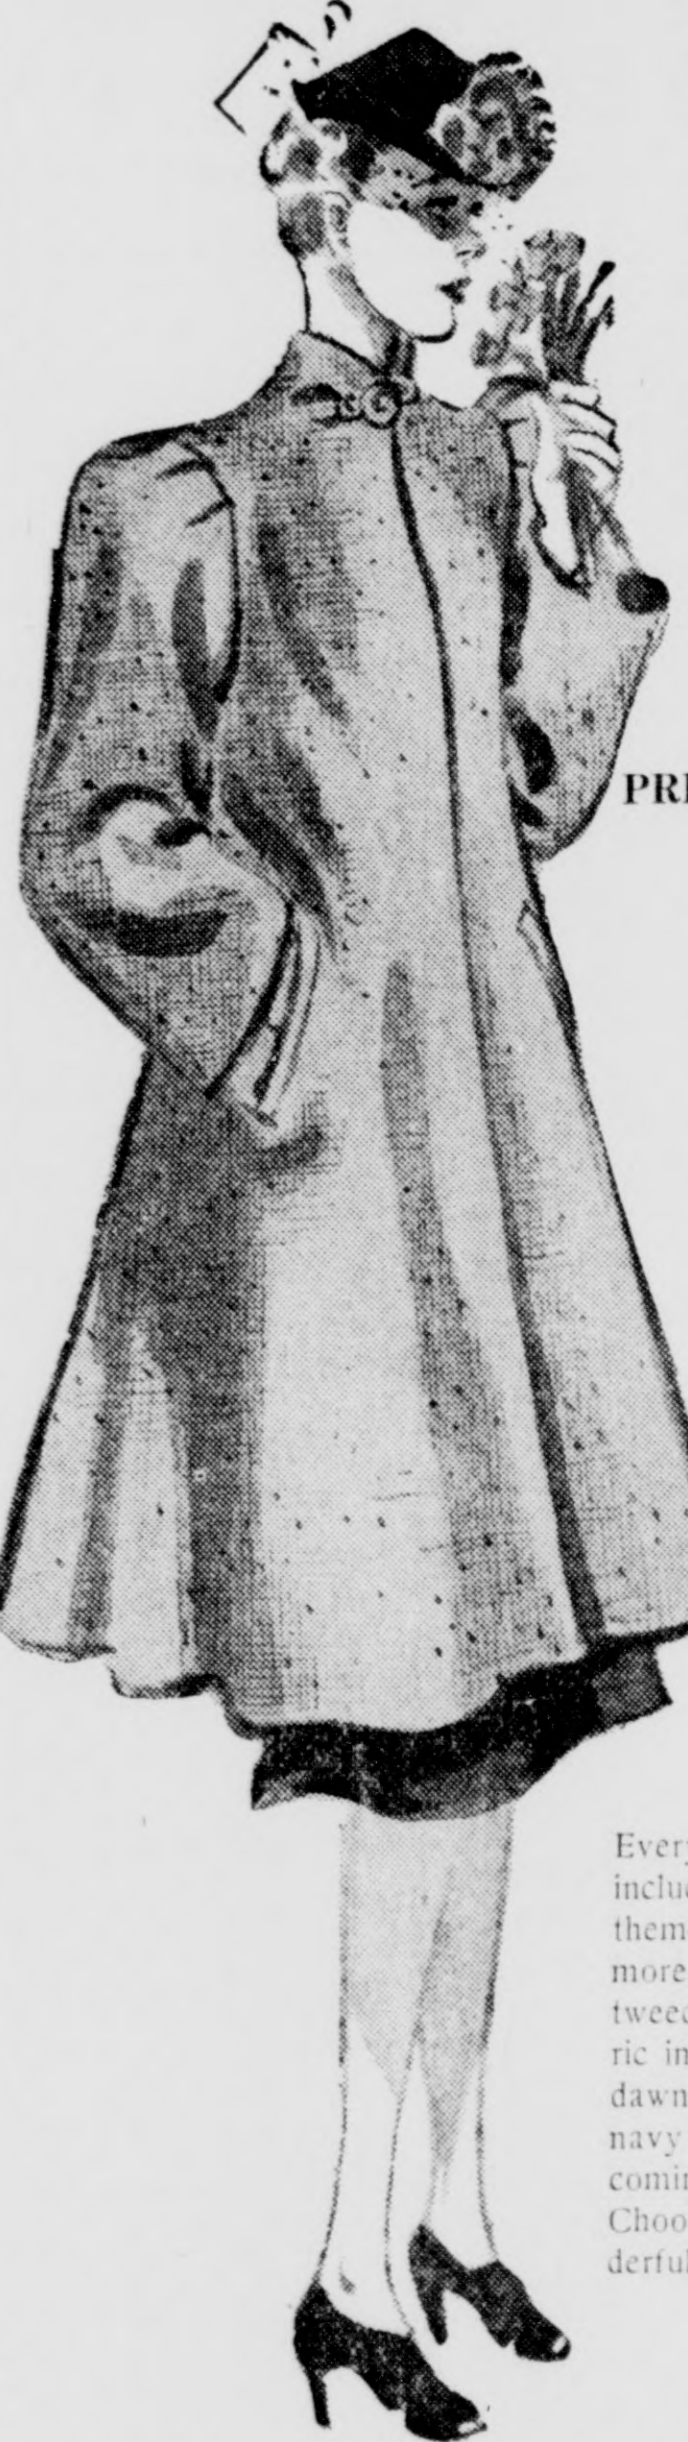

Towermen were already on duty in a number of forest fire observation stations. Should the weather remain as favorable for forest fires as it now is, by April 1 all the state's 144 towers will be manned, it was announced.

Forty-six fires were reported this season. They have cost the commonwealth more than $1,000 to extinguish.
